

Including Autistic students and their families.

By speaking to parents of Autistic children and understanding their needs, you can make small accommodations to social activities so that everyone is included.

Common accommodations include:

Giving
advance
notice for social activities

Choosing
places and activities
based on sensory needs

Advising on what to expect
at a social gathering

Interested in finding out more about inclusion?
Visit amaze.org.au for more information.

